Mogens Nørgaard: Database

- Mogens is a charismatic figure in the Oracle World
- He started his company Miracle in 2000 along with a childhood friend, after over 10 years with Oracle
- A co-founder of www.oaktable.net , BAARF
- He created WeDoNotUse.com and is an Oracle ACE Director
- His presentation style is sometimes contentious, often hilarious, and always challenges you to think about what you think you know, teaching you more
- When he isn't making us laugh he is busy with his other projects such as the Miracle micro brewery

Daniel Morgan: Database

- Architect and Development DBA
- Morgan's Library (www.morganslibrary.org)
- University of Washington, retired

What is the ACE program?

- Oracle's acknowledgement of the user community
- Not part of sales and marketing
- Two different levels of participation
  - ACE
  - ACE Director
- An opportunity for us to give back to the community that has given so much to us

THE ORACLE ACE PROGRAM - Qualifications and Nominations

The Oracle ACE Program is designed to recognize and reward Oracle customers for advocating Oracle Technology and Applications. Oracle ACE recipients are chosen based on their significant contributions to, and activity in, their respective community. The program currently has two levels: Oracle ACE and Oracle ACE Director.

For more information, read the FAQ.

Oracle ACE Qualifications

To qualify for the Oracle ACE award, candidates should meet as many of the following qualifications as possible.

- Technical proficiency
- Oracle-related blog
- Oracle discussion forum activity
- Published white paper(s) and/or article(s)
- Presentation experience
- Beta program participant
- Oracle user group member
- Oracle certification

Benefits of the program include:

- Promotion of Oracle ACEs as "official" experts on Oracle Web sites/at events
- Publication of articles and papers on OTN (with compensation)
- Speaking opportunities at Oracle and/or 3rd party events

Oracle ACE Nomination Process

Anyone in the Oracle community is eligible to nominate a potential Oracle ACE award; only non-employees may receive them. As nominations are received the nomination committee will review them within a 2-week period. Award recipients will be selected based on their qualifications. Oracle reserves the right to final judgment on all nominations.

Oracle ACE Director Qualifications

In addition to making their ongoing contributions to the community, Oracle ACE Directors are willing to work with Oracle more proactively to engage in opportunities to advocate Oracle Technology and Applications via publishing and event presentations. Oracle ACE Directors are also expected to provide constructive feedback to Oracle product teams.

Beyond the baseline Oracle ACE requirements, the qualifications include:

- Track record of major contributions to the community, technical and/or community-oriented
- Good communication skills
- Ability to commit to participation in an honorary (noncompensated) capacity for 12 months

In addition to those of Oracle ACE status, benefits include:

- Direct communication with Oracle product teams
- Annual briefing at Oracle HQ

Oracle ACE Director Nomination Process

Oracle ACE Director nominations are open to the public, but nominees require sponsorship by existing members and/or an Oracle employee (employees not eligible).

THE ORACLE ACE PROGRAM - Qualifications and Nominations

The Oracle ACE Program is designed to recognize and reward Oracle customers for advocating Oracle Technology and Applications. Oracle ACE recipients are chosen based on their significant contributions to, and activity in, their respective community. The program currently has two levels: Oracle ACE and Oracle ACE Director.

For more information, read the FAQ.

Oracle ACE Qualifications

To qualify for the Oracle ACE award, candidates should meet as many of the following qualifications as possible.

- Technical proficiency
- Oracle-related blog
- Oracle discussion forum activity
- Published white paper(s) and/or article(s)
- Presentation experience
- Beta program participant
- Oracle user group member
- Oracle certification

Benefits of the program include:

- Promotion of Oracle ACEs as "official" experts on Oracle Web sites/at events
- Publication of articles and papers on OTN (with compensation)
- Speaking opportunities at Oracle and/or 3rd party events

Oracle ACE Nomination Process

Anyone in the Oracle community is eligible to nominate a potential Oracle ACE award; only non-employees may receive them. As nominations are received the nomination committee will review them within a 2-week period. Award recipients will be selected based on their qualifications. Oracle reserves the right to final judgment on all nominations.

Oracle ACE Director Qualifications

In addition to making their ongoing contributions to the community, Oracle ACE Directors are willing to work with Oracle more proactively to engage in opportunities to advocate Oracle Technology and Applications via publishing and event presentations. Oracle ACE Directors are also expected to provide constructive feedback to Oracle product teams.

Beyond the baseline Oracle ACE requirements, the qualifications include:

- Track record of major contributions to the community, technical and/or community-oriented
- Good communication skills
- Ability to commit to participation in an honorary (noncompensated) capacity for 12 months

In addition to those of Oracle ACE status, benefits include:

- Presentation experience
- Beta program participant
- Oracle user group member
- Oracle certification

Benefits of the program include:

- Promotion of Oracle ACEs as "official" experts on Oracle Web sites/at events
- Publication of articles and papers on OTN (with compensation)
- Speaking opportunities at Oracle and/or 3rd party events

Oracle ACE Nomination Process

Anyone in the Oracle community is eligible to nominate a potential Oracle ACE award; only non-employees may receive them. As nominations are received the nomination committee will review them within a 2-week period. Award recipients will be selected based on their qualifications. Oracle reserves the right to final judgment on all nominations.

Oracle ACE Director Qualifications

In addition to making their ongoing contributions to the community, Oracle ACE Directors are willing to work with Oracle more proactively to engage in opportunities to advocate Oracle Technology and Applications via publishing and event presentations. Oracle ACE Directors are also expected to provide constructive feedback to Oracle product teams.

Beyond the baseline Oracle ACE requirements, the qualifications include:

- Track record of major contributions to the community, technical and/or community-oriented
- Good communication skills
- Ability to commit to participation in an honorary (noncompensated) capacity for 12 months

In addition to those of Oracle ACE status, benefits include:

- Direct communication with Oracle product teams
- Annual briefing at Oracle HQ

Oracle ACE Director Nomination Process

Oracle ACE Director nominations are open to the public, but nominees require sponsorship by existing members and/or an Oracle employee (employees not eligible).
